

MISSION

Serving society through the training of competitive healthcare professionals based on the integration of advanced educational, scientific medical technologies.

VISION

An innovative student-oriented university, continuously developing on the principles of the academic health and science system, in which professionals who share the same values join forces to generate, transfer and use knowledge about health and in the name of human health.